Author's Notes:
Something different.

As a matter of routine I push my tongue into Kirk's mouth.

Then I stop moving. The cameras click away, as always.

Kirk's nose touches mine but he doesn't touch my tongue with his. He just has to let my tongue in. That's the deal.

Of course, the action has to look good. Kirk isn't much of an actor, so I have to do my best to put on the act without letting it look like a fake.

I'm always on duty for the band.

No use in kissing another guitarist who's in an alcohol-induced coma whenever we're off stage.
